amendment, shall, if required by the Chairman, be reduced to writing and handed to the Chairman who shall determine the order in which they are considered.

- e A Councillor may move amendments to his own motion. If a motion has already been seconded, an amendment to it shall be with the consent of the seconder.
- f Any amendment to a motion shall be either:
 - i. to leave out words;
 - ii. to add words;
 - iii. to leave out words and add other words.
- g A proposed or carried amendment to a motion shall not have the effect of rescinding the original or substantive motion under consideration.
- h Only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the Chairman. No further amendment to a motion shall be moved until the previous amendment has been disposed of.
- i Subject to Standing Order 6(h) above, one or more amendments may be discussed together if the Chairman considers this expedient but shall be voted upon separately.
- j Pursuant to standing order 6(h) above, the number of amendments to an original or substantive motion, which may be moved by a councillor, is limited to one.
- k If an amendment is not carried, other amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the Chairman.
- l If an amendment is carried, the original motion, as amended, shall take the place of the original motion and shall become the substantive motion upon which any further amendment may be moved.
- m The mover of a motion or the mover of an amendment shall have a right of reply.
- n Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply in respect of the substantive motion at the very end of debate and immediately before it is put to the vote.
- o Subject to standing orders 6(m) and (n) above, a councillor may not speak further in respect of any one motion except to speak once on an amendment moved by another councillor or to make a point of order or to give a personal explanation.
- p During the debate of a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A Councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he considers has been breached or specify the irregularity in the meeting he is concerned by.
- q A point of order shall be decided by the Chairman and his decision shall be final.
- r With the consent of the seconder and/or of the meeting, a motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the proposer. A councillor shall not speak upon the said motion or amendment unless permission for the withdrawal of the motion or amendment has been refused.

33 Co-option Procedure (min ref 15/08/84)

1. In the event of a resignation or another reason for creation of a vacancy the clerk will immediately contact the District Council electoral registration office on the effective date of the vacancy and request the initiation of the advertising of the notice of vacancy.
If the vacancy has arisen because of a death, it is courteous that the notice is not displayed until after the funeral has taken place.
2. If this advertisement does not initiate the 10 signatures of electors in the period of time required by legislation (at present 14 working days) move to the co-option process step 3, otherwise the election process will be followed. If Parish elections are to be held within 6 months then the council is not obliged to co-opt
3. The co-option process will be advertised within 21 days of the end of the time for notice of vacancy.
4. The co-option notice will include the final date for acceptance of requests for consideration (20 working days after the date of notice) and the number of vacancies.
5. The notice will be placed on the parish notice boards.
6. The co-option process etc will be put into the parish newsletters when possible and local press if agreed by the council.
7. Members may point out the vacancies and the process to any qualifying candidate(s).
8. Candidates found to be offering inducements of any kind will be disqualified.
9. All candidates will be expected to put their request for consideration in writing with the following additional information:- reason for wishing to be a councillor, previous community/council work, other skills they can bring to the council. It will be a condition of membership that a means of contact by telephone and/or e-mail will be public information.
10. Discussion will take place in full council session without intervention from the candidates or public
11. A resolution may be put at this stage that a vote not be taken at this stage – the parish council does not have to accept any of the nominees.
12. A vote will then be taken by paper ballot. In the event of multiple vacancies all candidates names will be on the ballot and the Councillors will vote for candidates to fill the number of vacancies available. The candidates with the maximum number of votes will be appointed onto the council. The Chairman will have a deciding vote.

13 Candidates will be furnished with a full agenda of the meeting at which they are to be considered for election with the code of conduct and standing orders of the council. The successful candidates will immediately sign their declaration of acceptance of office and can then act as Councillors. The Declaration of Interest will be filled in within 28 days and a copy passed on to the monitoring officer.
